

Katherine Cwiek

CONSULTANT

Katherine is a consultant for Health Strategies & Solutions. Prior to joining the firm, she served as a consultant for the University of Michigan Cardiovascular Center, where she identified patient flow trends to support volume and strengthen referrer relationships. She has also developed an IT strategic plan for a nationally recognized health insurance company to foster new market penetration.

Katherine's work with RevolutionHealth.com, an Internet health care resource, has given her unique insight into the growing need for transparency in the health care process.

She also has experience with strategic planning process for academic medicine, payor entities, and direct-to-consumer IT initiatives.

Katherine holds a bachelor of science degree in biological psychology and Spanish and a master's degree in health services administration, both from the University of Michigan.
